Walkthrough

Help menu is accessed with [help]. Parts of the help menu are used for lore purposes.

Your prompt contains useful information:

[Progress number, Name, Current connection]#

Things you need to type will be outlined in square brackets like so: [exit]. Type the word not the square brackets.

Steps will be structured like this:

(What the use is expected to do to figure out how to move on.) What to actually do to move on.

[] denotes any input.

What is in the brackets usually outlines what is needed to proceed. There are other input options if the reader is paying attention and more flexible input than what is written.
